Hancock County's American Red Cross Chapter sounded an urgent call this week to the people of the area to help provide funds for the relief of the suffering people of Hungary. The chapter's minimum goal is $235, as part of the five million dollar national goal announced by National President E. Roland Harriman.

In a message to the local chapter this week, Mr. Harriman said: "The tragic suffering of the people of Hungary has caused every American to want to send help. This help has gone from the American Red Cross and we have been joined by other Red Cross Societies throughout the world in rushing medical supplies, food, blankets and other necessities to the stricken area. "The Red Cross is the international agency that is now moving supplies into Hungary and supervising their distribution.

"As refugees poured into Austria by the thousands, the Austrian government turned to the Red Cross to assume responsibility for the refugees. It is reported that more than 83,000 refugees have already crossed over the Hungarian border and Court House, Bay St. Louis.

daily additional numbers pour into Austria. "The needs continue to mount in Hungary as well as among the refugees who have escaped. The Red Cross must have additional funds to help meet the increasing need for food, medical supplies, clothing and other essentials. "Americans everywhere want to play their part through the Red Cross in assisting Hungarian refugees."

SERVICES HELD AT BLOXING

Services for Murry Lee Clark, 60, father of Mrs. Lewis Warner, Sea Coast Echo's Society editor, were held Thursday afternoon at the Bloxling Veterans Center with burial at Evergreen Cemetery.

The first port director of the Gulfport Harbor, Lee had been under treatment since Aug. 22, and after improving from an illness had planned to spend a few days home for Christmas when he suffered a sudden relapse Monday and died Tuesday.

Born in Ohio, Clark, long associated with the lumber industry and shipping activities in Gulfport, was appointed the city's first director of the harbor in 1926 and served in that capacity until 1934 when he became associated with the late J. R. Dent of the J. R. Dent Co., Gulfport.

He remained with Dent until 1940 at which time he became manager of the nitrate division of Ryan Stevedoring Co.

Clark was married April 22, 1910 to the former Miss May Williams, who survives him. He enlisted in the Army Oct. 7, 1917, and served as a lieutenant overseas in STU Co. 8 QMC, receiving his discharge on Dec. 7, 1918.

Clark was a charter member of the Joe Graham American Legion Post and was active in many of its undertakings. He was also a member of the Coast 4083 and the First Methodist Church.

Nov. 1, 1955 he was appointed chairman of the Harrison County Board of Supervisors. Other survivors include a son, Lieut. James Lee Clark, an instructor at Kings Point Academy, New York; daughter, Mrs. Mary Evelyn Woods, San Francisco, Calif.; three grandsons and five nephews.

Honorary pallbearers include officials and employees of the L&N Railroad, I. G. Railroad, Gulfport Port Commission, Ryan Stevedoring Co., Waterman Steamship Co., and Joe Graham American Legion Post.

The mid-winter conference of the American Legion Auxiliary held at Meridian on Nov. 24, 25 and 26, was attended by Mrs. Russell Elliott, representative of the Bay St. Louis.

Greetings were extended by the Department officers of the American Legion Commander, Jack Poll, Magee, Miss and adjutant, Mr. Frank Chambers. Mrs. Jerry Ashley of Crowley, La., National Vice-President of the Southern Division addressed the ladies, touching on each of the programs outlined from national headquarters.

Mrs. Russell reported that the Bay St. Louis unit received much praise from the state officials for the work the unit is doing in all phases of the scheduled programs, particularly for our junior activities program.

Miss Patricia Skinner of Piquette, Miss is the beneficiary this year of the nurses training scholarships offered by the Auxiliary.

A motion was passed to work together with the American Legion "Back To God, Go To Church" movement.

Health Officer Raps Concern Over Death Of Local Dogs

Why do people display so much anxiety about dogs — why such deep concern?" Dr. C. M. Shipp, County Health Officer, inquired in a statement this week referring to the mysterious deaths of more than fifteen dogs during the last few weeks.

Deaths of several of the dogs were blamed by a Gulfport veterinarian and a local physician on strychnine poisoning. However, the health officer said strychnine could not be purchased in Bay St. Louis except in non-poisonous tablets.

"Now the rumor is abroad that dogs are being poisoned," the health officer said. "Some people think it is strychnine, which as everyone knows is a deadly poison. The raw story, however, cannot be purchased in Bay St. Louis. Drug stores do not stock the drug in that form. It is determined to have the patient take the vaccine. They do not realize this vaccine is the most dangerous of all vaccines used by the medical doctors. Often alarming symptoms will show up in a patient taking rabies vaccine and the doctor will have to stop giving it."

"Then the doctor is on the legs as they do in Bay St. Louis. He doesn't know whether the patient has had enough but he keeps on giving it. He will where dogs roam the street kill the patient and he is dead at will. Do the people realize by the use of vaccine. It could be a death whichever way you constantly called with complaint that a child has been bitten by some dog?"

"What must I do about it and can't you have the dog destroyed," they ask. "We tell them that's the parasite infections to human flower can stand the assault of wrong thing to do but he must believe. "Their intestinal. Dogs and flowers are simply he dies, bring his head in the traps and then he is dead with vaccination."

"The moral is, if you want a dog, keep him in your own yard and not in your neighbors yard to scatter his parasites and kill the flowers, for no dog can stand the assault of wrong thing to do but he must believe. "Their intestinal. Dogs and flowers are simply he dies, bring his head in the traps and then he is dead with vaccination."

"Doctors are reluctant to use the vaccine unless absolutely necessary."

"Dogs can and do transmit the parasite infections to human flower can stand the assault of wrong thing to do but he must believe. "Their intestinal. Dogs and flowers are simply he dies, bring his head in the traps and then he is dead with vaccination."

"The burning of the mortgage" was an added feature of the meeting.

The benefit is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Green and Lawrence Carco.

Officers to serve for the 1957 season were named at a meeting of the Bay Waveland Yacht Club Auxiliary Wednesday morning.

Named to serve for the coming season were Mrs. J. R. Schaff, president; Mrs. E. E. Schaff, vice president; Mrs. N. L. Carter, and vice president; Mrs. Walter Davis, secretary; and Mrs. Edwin Hagan, Jr., treasurer.

A benefit for the Elvin Garcia family will be held at the Town and Country Lounge in Lake Shore Sunday, Dec. 16.

several kinds of worms. Some infect the gut tract of the human and some the soft muscles of man and they make you sick, don't forget that."

"If a dog has messed up your yard with foul dung, that yard is polluted and children playing there can become infected. If the larvae become encysted in muscle tissue, then you've got something the doctor can't cure."

"Dogs Unsocial" "Man has enough ills to cope with without reciprocating with dog diseases. Dogs suffer from many ills, many of them parasitic in character. In acute infections dogs die and many of them die in convulsions especially from the parasitic diseases. If you want your dog to stay well keep him away from other dogs. They always exchange whatever infections they may have with other dogs."

"Another thing we stand for which we shouldn't, and every one in Bay St. Louis, even the children, have witnessed this is that they don't conform to polite society and display bad manners. The dog belongs to the lower animal group and pays no attention to the rule of conduct."

"If you don't want this repugnant sight displayed before our child life in this town, then pass and enforce a strong dog law that will protect both the dogs and the people."

"The moral is, if you want a dog, keep him in your own yard and not in your neighbors yard to scatter his parasites and kill the flowers, for no dog can stand the assault of wrong thing to do but he must believe. MANY STOPS TO BE REMOVED WITH Oil Rig Landmark 'YIELD RIGHT OF WAY' MARKERS Slips Wed. From Bay Of St. Louis

Some highway markers demanding a full "stop" at certain intersections will be taken down in the near future, Roy C. Adams, Tupelo, Highway Commission Chairman, stated here today.

They will be replaced, Mr. Adams said, by a new sign, which has recently been approved by the American Association of State Highway Officials.

The new marker is a yellow sign with black lettering. It is intended to replace the full "stop" sign at selected intersections, and is a "yield the right of way" marker.

This simply means, said A. M. White, department safety engineer at Jackson, that where a person wants to enter a road he must "yield or wait until it is safe and there is no incoming traffic."

Bay High Cagers Defeat State Champions

of the season, Coach Donald Caldwell's Bay High basketball team split a twin bill with the Lumberton basketballers Friday night as the defending state champion Lumberton girls dropped the Bay High lasses, 57-44, and their home-standing boys drubbed the Lumberton quintet 63-41.

It was the second loss in as many outings for Coach Caldwell's girls. Lumberton jumped to a 15-12 first period lead and was never headed. They led 28-20 at the half and 41-32 starting the final period.

Billie Tubose, Lumberton's all-star forward for the past two years, was the offensive spark that kept the Lumberton offense rolling. She took high scoring honors for the night pouring through 30 points. Team mate Cora Strahan collected 12.

Aimee Earle Holden, the losers with 16 points followed by Katherine Allison with 15.

The Bay High boys picked up their second consecutive victory in the nightcap. After taking a 13-9 first quarter lead, the Tigers made shambles of the Lumberton defense as they led 32-19 at the half and 46-31 at the end of the third stanza.

Melvin Barnes, Bay High 6-1 sophomore pivotman, was high man for the Tiger quintet with 16 points followed by Wayne Allison with 11. Cooper had 12 to lead the losers.

Rocks Victorious; SJA Drops Tilt

St. John basketball team of Gulfport invaded Bay St. Louis Tuesday night and split a double-header at the St. Stanislaus gymnasium. The St. John girls defeated St. Joseph's Academy, 72-58, and the St. Stanislaus boys dropped the St. John quintet, 73-29.

In the opener, the St. John girls overcame a 13-12 first period deficit to take a 34-29 halftime lead which they never relinquished. They led 54-43 at the start of the last stanza.

Barbara Truak led the winners with 35 points followed by Sharon Dubulson with 22. P. Morris was high scorer for the game as she collected 27 points in a losing cause.

In the nightcap the St. Stanislaus boys took a 13-10 first period lead and from then on were never seriously threatened. They led 31-13 at the half and 54-29 going into the final period.

A Rigby and J. Gilblain led 16 points each to head the winners while L. Lader and L. Smith each had nine for the losers.

EVERYONE IS ELIGIBLE TO WIN RCA COLOR TV SET

There will not be the usual restrictions on eligibility for winning the $255 RCA Color TV Set that will be given away REA Day, Saturday, December 8th.

The retail Merchants Committee of the Hancock County C. of C., sponsors of the promotion, first planned to exclude the families and employees of the participating merchants from the drawing. As the list of participants grew, it was realized that to exclude families and employees of the participating firms, would be unfair, because it would deprive so many of a chance to win.

Therefore, it was decided that everyone would be declared eligible. The drawing will be held on the platform in the Bay High Gymnasium at 8:00 P.M., Saturday, December 8th, in the presence of all that attend.

BAY HIGH JUNIORS CLAIM TWO CAGE WINS THURS.

Bay High's junior basketball team got off to a good start Thursday night by taking a boys' win, 26-14, and girls' victory, 26-23, from invading Lakeshire squads.

The sextet, coached by Miss Ruth Longest, nipped the Lakeshire lasses in a close encounter while Ray Holyfield's lads walked away with their game.

Slips Wed. From Bay Of St. Louis

During the darkness Wednesday night a landmark in the Bay of St. Louis floated out to a new location in the south.

Early dawn Thursday disclosed that J. Willis Hugh's oil rig in the bay had moved on toward for another offshore, oil venture.

Only Offshore Rig Named the No. 3 state of Mississippi, the rig had been located just south of the Bay St. Louis toll bridge and was the state's only offshore venture.

Two weeks ago its owner declared a "dry hole" after drilling 9,901 feet.

The offshore attempt was the third staged along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Both others were also declared "dry holes."

Hughes has a permit for a No. 2 state of Mississippi, designated for the Bay St. Louis, but said he plans to study the data collected from the Bay venture before making a decision on drilling.

Knights Top Hiway Cops

A see-saw battle was witnessed at the St. Joseph Academy gymnasium Thursday night when the Bay St. Louis Knights of Columbus council defeated the district six Mississippi Highway Patrolmen, 33-28, in a benefit basketball contest.

The encounter was an even fray until the KC's put on a last-quarter surge to claim the honors.

Tied Entering 4th The KC's led 9-7, at the close of the opening period and 17-15 at intermission, but entering the fourth act the battle was deadlocked, 21-21.

Bay St. Louis' Wesley Hase contributed 18 points for the KC's to be point-kings of the evening while W. D. King dropped nine markers through the hoops.

This was the first time in recent years highway patrolmen participated in such an event, and was approved by Tom Scarborough, state public safety commissioner, and district inspector W. E. Jacobs as it did not interfere with the patrolmen's work.

Inspector Jacob smanged the patrol five.

GEORGIA QUAIL "The weather was cold, but the quail hunting was good in Georgia this past week," reported Dan Russell and Homer Gregory, who just returned from Atlanta, Americus, and Carlele, Ga., on their annual hunting trip. Dan and Homer visited Dr. J. E. Gregory and family in Atlanta and during the week the party enjoyed a successful hunt in southeast Georgia.

This may be a Georgia quail tale, since we have seen no proof.

COAST ELECTRIC ADDS MUCH TO AREA'S ECONOMY
 Employing 43 people, operating a fleet of 15 vehicles and purchasing all of their power locally, Coast Electric adds much to the economy of the tri-county area it serves.
 Coast Electric's payroll of approximately $153,000 annually is to local employees. Purchasing all of its supplies possible locally, considerable other business is created.

 It has been conservatively estimated that for each dollar invested in electric line facilities, there are five dollars invested in house wiring, appliances and electric equipment.
 The bulk of this business remains at home, so again the existence of the local REA Associations makes for more business.
 One item alone, poles represents quite an investment and all of it locally. The approximately 1700 miles of line operated by Coast Electric has meant the use of 24,220 poles of various sizes. The cost of these average $14.00 each. This means that Coast Electric has purchased some $340,000 more than one million dollars worth of creosoted poles, and everyone of these were purchased in the area.
 Coast Electric serves from plants located at Gulfport and Picayune. The replacement of these poles goes on all the time, so the business continues.
 All of the power that Coast Electric distributes is purchased from the Mississippi Power Company. Delivered to Coast Electric owned regulator stations at Poplarville and Picayune, at Coast Electric owned substations
 at Biloxi and Bay St. Louis, and at a metering point near Gulfport, the local REA Association purchases approximately 18,612,000 KWH at a cost of some $121,000 annually.
 Other purchasing and services are kept local whenever and wherever possible. Transportation equipment, office and operating supplies, gasoline, etc., all are purchased locally.

NAME CAST FOR PLAY

The cast of characters has been selected for "The Case of the Weird Sisters", a play to be presented in early January by members of the Mariner Girl Scout Troop of Bay St.

Louis. Those who have read the play declare it to be the funniest and wittiest "who done it" to be presented in years. The five-member cast is composed of: Baynard Chamberlain as Mattie; Linda Sharp as Bessie; Celeste Chevis as Charlotte; Clara Kay Miller as Marion; and Judy Heitzmann as Enid.

Directing the play is Mrs. E. C. Samuel whose reputation as an able and competent director is well known in Little Theatre circles. The play, however, is only a segment of the entertainment planned by the merry Mariners, who will move the show along at a fast clip with singing, dancing, and skits. The audience is promised a bit of "lagniappe" tossed in as a sort of salute to girl scouting by a group of young men who have asked that their identity be kept secret until opening night. This play is being presented by the Mariners to help finance their summer trip to Georgia and Florida. The troop hopes to raise the entire amount needed for their expenses. It is entirely a troop project, separate from the finances of the Live Oak Girl Scout Council, although it has the approval and endorsement of the Council.

Mrs. Chamberlain, leader of the Mariners, said: "We feel very encouraged and hopeful about our planned presentation because we have already been assured so much cooperation and help. Profits earned through this enterprise will go toward chartering a bus that will take our entire troop of Senior Scouts on a wonderful ten-day trip next summer. We are looking anxiously forward to visiting the birthplace of our founder, Mrs. Juliette Gordon-Low.

This fine old Regency mansion in Savannah, Ga. was acquired by the Girl Scouts of U. S. A. in December 1953 and is used as a national center for Girl Scouting. Besides housing museum pieces the house holds a treasure of gifts and historical documents acquired through the years by girl scouts and guides throughout the world. We feel that a visit to the Low birthplace will be most inspiring to our Senior Girls and will add incentive for younger scouts to remain with the program until they are of an age to make some of the tours and trips provided through scouting for older girls.

FIRE-SAFE YULE SEASON IS AIM OF JR. FIREMEN

A fire-safe Christmas in Bay St. Louis is the aim of all Junior Fire Marshals who next week will join with boys and girls across the country in a gigantic Christmas tree tagging safety campaign sponsored nationally as a public service by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

Mrs. Margaret Shadoin of the Hancock Insurance Agency which is sponsoring the local program in cooperation with School Superintendent Mr. S. J. Ingram and Fire Chief Mr. Frank Quindt, estimates that approximately 700 third, fourth and fifth grade children will participate.

According to Mrs. Shadoin, tags supplied by the insurance firm are in the form of a yellow cardboard ruler, complete with string, and ready for tying to Christmas trees. Junior Fire Marshals will visit places where trees are sold and attach the tags which feature a list of fire safety tips. The tags may be left on trees as a decoration and a daily fire safety reminder throughout the holidays.

"The American Association of Nurserymen, whose 1,700 members supply a large part of the nation's 30,000,000 Christmas trees, is cooperating in the nationwide campaign," Mrs. Shadoin noted.

"Yule Rule" tags list seven ways to protect Christmas trees against fire. They are:

- 1) Stand tree in water or bucket of wet sand.
- 2) Check tree lights for frayed wire, loose sockets.
- 3) Keep tree away from radiator, fireplace and doors.
- 4) Use only fire proof decorations.
- 5) Turn off tree lights when you go out.
- 6) Keep gift wrappings and electric trains away from the tree.
- 7) When needles start to dry, remove tree from house.

"The Christmas project is the second phase in the year-round Junior Fire Marshal program started in schools here during National Fire Prevention Week," Mrs. Shadoin said.

"During Fire Prevention Week children earned credentials as members of the nationwide Junior Fire Marshal corps by completing an 18-point home inspection report and returning it to their teachers. More than 3,000,000 children in all 48 states and Canada are now participating in the mammoth educational program."

Junior Fire Marshals here will also receive the winter issue of the new Junior Fire Marshal Magazine. This edition highlights holiday fire dangers and features a map-drawing project designed to teach youngsters the location of community fire protection facilities.

$356,477.00 Distributed

Savings by Christmas Club Members at the Hancock Bank during 1956 surpassed all previous records. At Thanksgiving the bank mailed out checks totalling $356,477.00. In 1955 the total was $311,841.49.

This substantial increase shows that this effective method of saving money through the years grows in favor.

Saving for a purpose is one of our most useful hobbies, and for forty-one years now Hancock Bank has found its customers have fun while doing it. Year after year old members rejoice and new ones are added to make our Christmas Club something of a savings institution in the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

At no time of the year is a little extra money so much needed as at the Yuletide Season. Christmas shopping, taxes, insurance premiums, other obligations with unusual expenditures put extra pressure on our purses. And saving money for whatever purpose is a good old American custom. Benjamin Franklin, great exponent of thrift and pioneer in promoting saving money as a way of life, once said:

"The way to wealth is as plain as the way to market. It depends chiefly on two words — industry and frugality; that is, waste neither time nor money, make the best use of both. Without industry and frugality nothing will do; with them, everything."

We express our warm-hearted appreciation for the splendid cooperation of our customers and friends in helping us build a better bank while building their own fortunes with industry and frugality.

Hancock Bank is now ready to serve its 1957 Christmas Savings Club members, conveniently, at its banking quarters in Gulfport, Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis, or at its branch offices at Long Beach and on the Pass Road in Gulfport.

We cordially invite you to join our 1957 Christmas Savings Club, and begin today putting something by each week for that happier and more prosperous Christmas in 1957.
